“Love for life is a lacquer artwork that used modern visual language over traditional lacquer material to tell you one thing that everyone seems already knew. That whoever you are and whatever you do are living a life, which after all will go through Birth, Aging, Sickness and Death. And whether your are rich or poor, happy or suffering you will see sunrise and sunset, full moon and half moon when days passing by, and Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter, taking their turns. And every movement of time and space will leave in you happiness, sadness, lost, sweetness or bitterness, acceptance or denial... but that's life, like it or not you are and you will live with hopes, even small, to a better tomorrow.
